School concerns

If you have concerns about school – such as homework, school activities or other students – you can talk with your parents/carers and/or with school staff including:

- your teachers
- school chaplain
- school psychologist
- school nurse
- any other staff member.